Re: Family Law Vocational Examination

Dear Ms. Miller:

As you know, this morning you testified in my client's support hearing in her divorce case. You had conducted the Vocational Examination of Petitioner Husband and his attorney required that you testify concerning your report.

I wanted to take this opportunity to let you know how impressed and happy my client and I are with your report and your court testimony. I am in my 26th year practicing family law and have used several Vocational Examiners over the past years. Your report and testimony are by far the best I have ever seen.

Although we were rushed in court and did not have the opportunity to discuss your testimony prior to your taking the stand, it became obvious within a few minutes of your testimony that you know exactly what you are doing. Your report was extensive with a complete background of Petitioner Husband. Your analysis was well documented and your opinions and testimony was beyond reproach. When the attorney tried to question your analysis and findings you immediately, clearly and concisely put the attorney in her place and set the record straight.

Thank you very much for your assistance.

Sincerely,

DENNIS W. CHANG
